

Partial Listing of Qualifications Regarding Cultural Competence

- Founding member of Cultural Clinical Consultants, a private practice collective of 5 individuals involved in education, training and peer consultation with a focus on cultural competence
- Presenter and co-organizer of conference: Reality Check: Improving Service Delivery to Multi-Challenged Families, June 6th and 7th, 2013 Halifax, NS
- Partial list of presentations for 2013 :
"Racism and White Privilege" talk, delivered to the Canadian Federation of Students Skills Training Weekend
"White Privilege", talk to class of grade 12 students at East Hants Rural High School
"Issues of Diversity and White Privilege", talk delivered to Dalhousie University South House volunteers
Presenter with other members of Cultural Clinical Consultants: Professional training workshop on Cultural Competence for N.S. Serious Incident Response Team (SIRT) and Dpt. of Justice staff
- Delivered professional training: "Adolescent Behaviour and Anti-Racism", for all staff of Homebridge Group Home Association, 2010-2011
- Participant in African Nova Scotian focus group for the Provincial Dpt. of Health Consultation on Development of the Mental Health and Addictions Strategy, 2011
- Presenter: YMCA Immigrant Women Workshop: "North American Culture of Parenting", 2011
- Presenter and attendance at the Nova Scotia Council on African Canadian Education (CACE) Parent Summit, April and May 2008
- Presenter: Digby County Family Resource Centre - African Nova Scotian Parent Conference, "Issues in Parenting Bi-racial Children", Sept. 2008
- Founding member - Capitol District Health Authority Diversity Committee, 2006
Member of planning committee for Dalhousie University Dept. of Psychiatry Academic Day (on Cultural Competence in Mental Health), 2008
- Founding member - Metro Coalition for a Non-Racist Society, 1991 and participated in group writing of the book "Racism, Who's Problem", currently available in all Nova Scotia school board districts
- Thesis completed for Master of Social Work: "An Examination of the Attitudes and Knowledge Base of Non-Black Social Workers, Counselors and Social Service Workers Regarding the Black Community in an Urban Area of Nova Scotia", 1986

Jacqueline Barkley, Curriculum Vitae